Full Quest & RNPC Guide

By: Giliam

Tnx for adding me to the "Hall Of Fame: Player Guides", it's an honour. I will keep the guide updated!!
 The guide became to long and I had to post it in 2 post, Too bad OMGMS has the second post, but we can live with that

Table Of Contents

1. Foreword
2. Notes
3. Quests
4. Quests written by others
5. Quests that are not possible in this version
6. Credits
7. Legal

1. Foreword

This is a Guide that I made out of pure irritation.

Everytime I needed information on a quest I was forced to switch between many websites as there is no complete list available yet.

I became tired of this and decided to help myself and others by creating one universal guide for all Quests and RNPC's.

I have done all the quests under 3.Quests. I have given them an easy universal layout, wrote the squence of completing the quest and also some tips on how to complete them. The details of the other quest are taken from various other sources. I will keep updating this post as I progress in the game.

2. Notes

Some quest are missing. I think I did 3 quests around lv120-30 that are not on this list, but I forgot the details.
 They al started in Coimbra thought. If anyone has details please let me know Adds and corrections are welcome!!!

Updates

Rewrote some quest with the help of others.

Added Bahama;s Quest Guide and Garcia Jameson Guide

4.) Bernelli will ask you to return to the place where you found the disc, in the quest menu (alt + A) it says Prison de Joaquin, The Mohrgus. So it has got to be somewhere there.

Tnx to Valinorians and shmoo for details of the last pioneering quests

Grace bernelli quest

Splitted Lands." Theres no place actually labeled this, I believe. I found out myself from a friend I made that night, youu, that it was El Canon Diabolica and that the Ghost Baron monster drops the rodonite.

Once you've collected all the items needed, head back to Eusebio, who will polish and remove that rust from the emblems you found. Afterwards, head back to Bernelli, who will want you to return to the Prison de Joaquin, Mohrgus where you found the disc. I don't ever remember finding this disc in the first place but you'll find the spot you need at the upper right most corner of C-8.

If you're having trouble, just keep running around the right side of the mouth of the passageway before the room.

Anyway, once you've found the spot, you'll be warped into another map. The room will be filled with undead soldiers (lv. 80) and failed experiments monsters (lv. 85) Your goal here is to kill 100 of these zombies which will allow you to move past the gates up ahead.

Once you've killed the first batch of zombies, you're required to kill another 100 zombies to pass the last gate~ The game keeps your total from the previous count so you'll kill a total of 200.

I'm not sure but I think those gates hurt me while running through it, someone might wanna check if you can destroy them before passing them.

You'll meet a new NPC here~ If you've been following kGE, this is the man you saw on the tropical island with the blonde hair and rapier, his name is Jameson, and apparently, he carries a gun too. A rapier and a fatty quattro fiend, sounds cool, doesn't it? Unfortunately, you just bugged him and he hates uninvited guest so you'll be on the receiving end of his coolness.

I didn't have time to check him but I'll guess he was between lv. 80~90. Whatever he was, he kicked me around some. He's got some knockdown moves so be careful.

After you're done playing with Jameson, you'll want to head over to Thuringenwald to the cemetery. Thats what he told you to do, right? and thats where you're going, right? and you'd expect that to be correct, right!?

Well, no, nothing happens IN the cemetery. Where they really want you to go is just bellow the cemetery at G-4.

Looking at this:

Once you examine that, THEN you'll be warped back up to the cemetery for another fight with Hingis...but first! you'll have to kill his undead zombie friends...wave...after wave...of smelly corpses. Take care just like before, you'll have Bernelli with you.

Alright, after your battle, Jameson gives you a key and tells you to find a secret door. This door is so secret, he couldn't even tell you where it was when handing you the key to it. Considerate, isn't he? So after running blindly through the morhagus, I found it! G-4 people, head to it.

Alright ladies and gentlemen, this is where we get serious. This is it. You take a step through that secret door and you're in what literally looks like hell. These are the same zombies you saw the first time with a few friends from the mohrgus, nothing scary about these.

On a sidenote, these monsters drop puzzle pieces. For what? I don't know, they just do. The description says to collect them all and show them to someone in Auch. I was only able to get pieces 3, 5, 12, and 15. I don't know how many there are or what they're for. Maybe you wanna spend some time killing the normal monsters collecting them? If you do, just stay out of the circle ring at the end in the middle, cause I didn't!

Stepping into the ring will initiate the dialogue between Grace and Dr. Fran Mothtein. Mind you, while they're talking those zombies near you are attacking you so don't lose your focus cause even more friends are about to drop by! Enter Floating Purple Glowing Boy Girl Thing!! FPGBG for short. Oh, and Jameson drops by again.

Anyway, Dr. Fran Mothtein must not be a very good host because he just scared off all his company. Yep, Dr. Ugly is about to stick his size 18 boots into your face. Bam.

Did I mention this guy was ugly earlier? Cause man, this guy is ugly~ He makes Dr. Torsche look decent.

He seems to be an Elementalist type, has a huge aoe that shoots fireballs that took 2/3rds my life and knocked me back. Just run away a little till he focuses on Bernelli and let her tank. After that, enjoy the story.

NPC+ Location: Baron, Bahamas base camp

The baron and Sharon now task you to look for the land of the witches. They think that the Bahama Swamp of Eternity is a possible place where the witches are hiding, so they ask you to go investigate.

Returning to the Witch's house, you will find that it's being sealed by the witch to stop trespassers (i.e. you). It's then suggested that in order to remove the seal, you need to go to various monuments scattered across Bahamas, and use otites to absorb the magic that is binding the seal.

Bahama Marshlands:

Bahama Swamp of Eternity:

Bahama Swamp of Darkness:

Bahama Swamp of Peril:

Just go up the monument (with the otites in hand) and the magic will be sealed. After visiting all 8 monuments, return to the baron and receive your reward. The next quest will immediately start.

Once you have collected completed the medicine quest, you will receive your reward from Sarah. Return to the baron and the quest will be complete.

Quest: The Mysterious Medicine

Quest: Visitors

After some dialogue, with Fritz joining your side of the battle, you will have to fight against Sharon.
Edit: Thanks larg for confirming!

After defeating her, you will return to the Witch's home and the witch will give you 1 sword of the king recipe. The elite 100 recipes can then be purchased from here on.

Quest: The 10 aristocrats

NPC+ Location: Baron, Bahamas base camp

After you finish the quest above, if you have both the Stalactite piece and snake skin (Both are dropped in the Bahama Underground Cave 1st floor), give it to Sierra, and you will gain access to purchase the Serpent recipes.

Gavin Jameson

tnx to Astaros

Please ensure that you have finished the following quests otherwise you cannot activate his quest:

- The Pioneering quest (finishing the Bahamas Swamp section)
- The entire Katovic Snowfield Quest series (giving you access to the Ice Wizard tower and finishing the original soup quest)

Elenore's request*Joaquin Expedition*

Continuing on, Elenore the Auch Pioneering Officer will ask you to catch Garcia, but she will send you to do an instanced mission called the Joaquin Expedition.

Simon's proposal - accept or decline

Once you're done, head on and talk to Simon Ayende first. He will offer you two options, which would alter the storyline a little but no matter which option you chose you will still get Garcia's card for both routes.

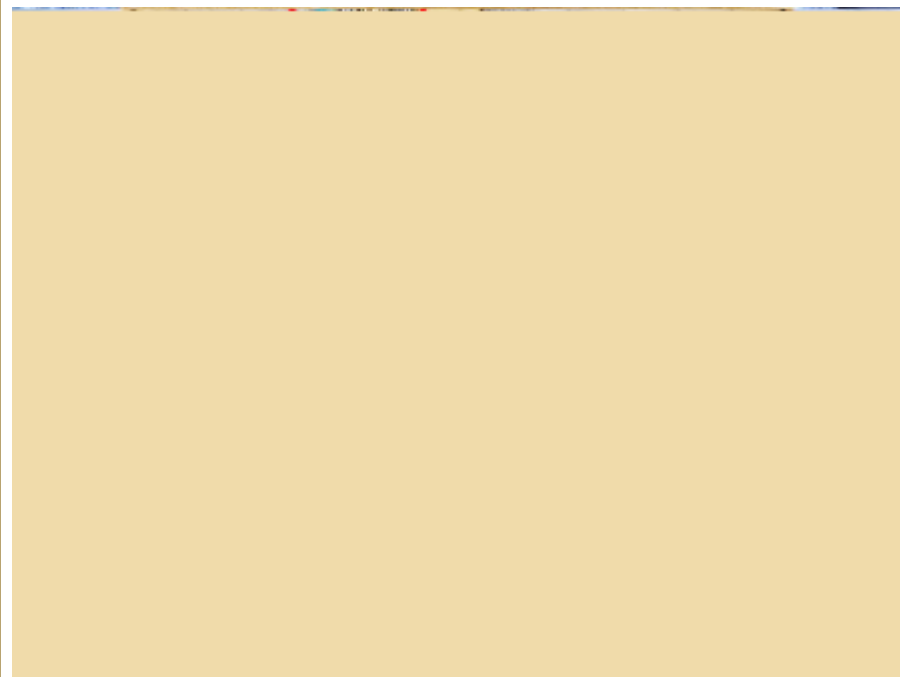

Location - Ferruccio Wall (F2)

Meeting Selva Notre

After receiving either of the two missions, head to Ferruccio Wall, and there you will meet Selva. After some dialogue, go to the Frozen Plain and talk to Invernio to continue investigation of Ferruccio's legacy. You will bump into Selva and Garcia again.

Invernio's location

Touching Reym's heart would allow you to know what exactly is Ferruccio's legacy, but before that, you need 50 gold bars, 50 ice crystals and 10 black magic stones.

Ice crystals and gold bars can be farmed throughout the Katovic map whereas black magic stones are dropped off mobs in the Ice Wizard Tower.

6 v 1, fair battle? xD

After solving the mystery of Reym's heart, Montoro will appear and steal the Ice Queen's seal. Selva, Garcia and Invernio will join your family in battle so you can attack from the corners. Here's Montoro's stats just in case:

Montoro's stats

At this point, you will receive this awesome item that adds 3AR and DR called Necklace of Sage. (Name may change due to different versions)

The pendant will only remain in your inventory for three days and only one character may equip it

The next mission is to enter Ice Wizard Tower itself and defeat Novia. (Need to finish all katovic quests at this point to enter.)

Once you entered the Ice Wizard Tower, move forward a few steps and a window will trigger asking you if you want to advance to the mission. Selecting yes will warp you to the instanced mission.

Once you're warped to the mission the battle will start against Novia. This will be no easy battle as you will not only face off Novia, but with her "summons" and Montoro. Selva and Garcia will aid you in the battle.

Note: It is extra important you stand at the following spot as indicated if you even want an easy battle. It will give your family a buff of AR/DR + 5 (It used to be 10 but the buff got nerfed as of ver 2.4) .You maybe fighting a quest version of Novia but nevertheless she's still a tough cookie.

lvl 130 = Novia, lvl 110 = Montoro, lvl 120 = Novia's summons

You need to take down Montoro and her summons, and bring down Novia's HP to 50% before the quest is complete.

*Vital battle tip - Bring Elementalists or rNPCs with the lightning evocation stance; excluding Montoro, the others are very weak to lightning but remember to cover them while they spam away their skills

But after the battle, Garcia has been turned into the undead and you need to save him.

So talk to Invernio again, and he will tell you that you need 10 soup and 10 gold bars to create a remedy to save Garcia. 1 soup requires 50 Wolf's meat, 20 Golden apples, 50 cabbages and 50 beets. [So you know what that means. 10 soup requires 500 Wolf's meat, 200 Golden apples, 500 cabbages and 500 beets.]

Note: If you have not done the soup quest in the Katovic Snowfield quest section, you will not be able to proceed to this part.

After saving Garcia, depending on what you chose when Simon offered you two choices, Garcia will either join you immediately or he will enter into a battle against you. But either way, you will get Garcia's card.

Scenario 1

If you chose Simon's second option, which is to report to him after you have found/caught Garcia, you can get Garcia's card as your reward by talking to him back at Auch.

Scenario 2

If you chose Simon's first option, which is to hand him over to the Office of Pioneering Support, you will be engaged into a battle with him.

Garcia's stats

After you win/lose, Garcia will run off and you will need to find him. If you want to know his location, speak with Tiburon (ugh) and he will only tell you Garcia's location if you pay him 1,000,000 Vis.

To those who have done Lorch's quest before, you should know better than to choose the 200,000 Vis offer.

After you found his location, return to converse with Simon Ayende to receive Garcia's card AND a lvl 100 enchantment chip.

Many of the quest level requirement from the other website is inaccurate. Hope someone that have done the quest to correct the level requirement for each quest.

Let me start first:

1. The lv 20 quests stated above, some of them can be done at level 17
2. And some of the lv 24 quests, can be done at level 20

dilos quest, a storyline loop?

i believe that "source of the taint" is the key to finish "fanatic mail" because you NEED to finish off dilos before you can ever go fanatic mail pieces hunting at Al Quelt Moreza arcade (cos it won't open until you finish off Dilos).

evenso, i suspect there's a loop. after finishing off dilos, and getting the mail, i attempted to go to the end of arcade, only to find a sealed box. i read elsewhere that after finishing a certain quest, one can open the chest to spawn another dilos.

so, without the key for the chest, i reported back to Domingo, having finished Dilos. then it opened "andre's gone mad" "secret of the holy water", the "man in despair" quest (of course i skipped battling with Claude, having been bruised 10 times there). i completed these in this succession, and after i gave Andre the food, i received the coat (having also gained the irolina hat).

the coat opens up "sympathy for Dilos," and it instructs you to place the robe at the tomb, and complete the Dilos quest there.

After i finished it there, i went back to AQM hollow, only to see it as a dead end now, without the chest i mentioned earlier.

is that the end of the Dilos story, or have i made a mistake in doing so?

btw: i finished up "grudge form the past" at lv21, and earlier than that i opened up soho's "buffalo horns" so there's no level cap in those quests. and please do take note of the other quests for you to post here, most specially the expcard-gaining quests at al moreza (nartex, parsonage, arcade).

oh and special mention to the 21-voucher quest at AQM (where, i read elsewhere, is a pain in the a to finish, coz it will make you believe that you will get a key [which i believe IS the key to that chest i mentioned earlier], a ??? ring, and exp-cards, not to mention that the quest asks you to collect ONLY 16 vouchers)
