DAY 1 | ROME | FRASCATI Arrive in Rome and transfer to your hotel in Frascati. Just south of Rome, in the Alban Hills, lies a string of hill towns nestled among vineyards called “Castelli Romani” - “Roman Castles”. Frascati, a summer haunt for the Roman elite through the centuries, offers good food, fresh white wines and captivating views of Rome at a distance. This afternoon, get acquainted with this lovely town during a guided walking tour. See the magnificent 16th century Villa Aldobrandini with its impressive flat-fronted façade and gardens, the beautiful Cathedral, and the many restaurants and cantinas that line the streets and alleys before heading back to the hotel to enjoy a delicious meal. (D)

DAY 2 | FRASCATI | GROTTAFERRATA | FRASCATI Today’s tour starts with a visit of the Abbey of San Nilo in Grottaferrata. Founded in 1004 by St. Nilus himself and completed a few years later by St. Bartholomew the Younger, it remains one of Italy’s most important centers of Byzantine culture. From here, a panoramic road winds its way uphill through beautiful scenery to the remains of ancient Tusculum. A favorite resort of Cicero, Tusculum was the birthplace of Cato the Elder. Destroyed by Rome in 1191, its ruins are overgrown and include an amphitheater, the forum, a wellhouse, and a stretch of the old town walls. Enjoy a picnic (weather permitting) or lunch at a local restaurant. Tonight dinner is at the renowned “Osteria di San Cesario”, a restaurant that specializes in the deepest-rooted culinary traditions of the Roman countryside. (B,L,D)

DAY 3 | FRASCATI This morning you will learn the secrets of Roman cuisine during a cooking class held by Frascati’s very own resident, culinary coach and food blogger, Mrs. Josephine (Jo) Donghi. Jo will guide you in making your own authentic Italian lunch in a creative and fun way. The rest of the day is yours to explore Frascati’s alleys and browse the many artisans, goldsmiths, antique shops and boutiques. A feature of Frascati is its “cantine”, or as they are known locally, “fraschette”. They’re essentially places where you can buy and drink wine, and can bring your own food. During summer nights the fraschette put their tables outside on the paved roads, and it seems like the whole town sits on these benches drinking, talking, and laughing beneath the stars. (B,L)

DAY 4 | FRASCATI | NEMI | ARICCIA | CASTEL GANDOLFO | FRASCATI Start your day with a visit of Nemi. Perched high above Lago di Nemi, the smaller of the two volcanic lakes in the area, Nemi was the center of a cult to the goddess Diana in ancient times, and the favorite holiday spot of the emperors Caligula and Nero, who used to orchestrate refined sumptuous banquets and feasts on luxuriously rigged rafts. Today it’s a popular getaway from Rome, and famous for its wild strawberries that grow in the nearby woods. Next you will visit the Chigi Palace in Ariccia, a masterpiece by Bernini. Planned in the 1600s as the official residence for Cardinal Flavio Chigi, it is remarkable not only because of the artworks hosted there, but because of the unique preservation of its paintings, sculptures and furnishings. Enjoy a light lunch accompanied by local wine before continuing on to Castel Gandolfo. The summer residence of the pope, Castel Gandolfo is a peaceful little town built on the shores of Lake Albano, the largest volcanic lake in the area. Enjoy some time to stroll around the town before heading back to your hotel. (B,L)

DAY 5 | FRASCATI | MONTE PORZIO CATONE | FRASCATI This morning’s tour starts with a visit to the “Scattered Museum of Wine”, a quaint little museum in Monte Porzio Catone, a town named after Marcus Porcius Cato the Elder, Roman Consul, born in Tusculum and author of the treatise De Agri Cultura, (circa 160 BC). The museum was opened in 2000 and houses a collection of wine-making utensils and equipment. You will then proceed off the beaten track to visit the oldest historic winery in the Region. Here you will meet with people who are passionate about the wine they produce, learn about the history of wine, get to know more about the importance of “terroir” and discover how to taste wine. Return to Frascati and the rest of the afternoon is at leisure. Tonight dinner at a local restaurant is included. (B,D)

DAY 6 | FRASCATI This morning’s tour will take you to three agribusinesses that belong to the Slow Food movement, and will introduce you to the different techniques used by these local farmers. Our first stop will be a hill-top honeybee farm where you will learn about honeybees and the wonderful world of honey. From there, we will go to the Erba Regina country estate, specializing in cultivating a wide variety of herbs and whose farming techniques are closely monitored by the Botanical Department of a Roman university. Last, we will visit a cheese farm where you will be given a demonstration and sample some of the cheeses. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure for independent activities. Tonight enjoy dinner at a typical restaurant. (B,D)

DAY 1 | NAPLES | MINORI Upon arrival, you will be met and transferred to your hotel in Minori, an attractive and uncrowded seaside town at the center of a wide cove on the Amalfi Coast. A resort-like retreat among aristocratic Romans who came for the sunshine and dramatic scenery, Minori retains its identity as a laid-back fishing village. The rest of the day is at leisure. Dinner and overnight at the hotel. (D)

DAY 2 | MINORI This morning, enjoy a walking tour of Minori. Dubbed “the town of good taste” for its gastronomic delights, Minori is known for its terraced gardens that stagger up rugged hillsides filled with citrus trees. The lemons are used to make some of the tasty pastries sold in shops throughout the Amalfi Coast, but also in the production of limoncello, the area’s famous liqueur. After a tasting of limoncello in a local factory, you will continue your tour with a visit of local artisan shops producing ceramics and other typical products of the area. Time to rest before taking part in a cooking class held by the hotel chef, followed by dinner. (B,D)

DAY 3 | MINORI | AMALFI | RAVELLO | MINORI Today, depart for a full day excursion to the UNESCO World Heritage towns of Amalfi and Ravello. Amalfi was once a powerful town, and the first Sea Republic in Italy, before part of it was destroyed by a tsunami in the 14th century. Walk through the town and see examples of Moorish influenced medieval architecture, such as Saint Andrew’s Cathedral (Duomo) and the Cloister of Paradise. Amalfi is also known for its hand-made thick paper called “bambagina”, popular with artists. Continue to the nearby charming town of Ravello, which was founded in the 5th century as shelter against barbarian invasions. By the 9th century, the town was an important trading power. Later in the afternoon, return to Minori. Dinner at the hotel. (B,D)

DAY 4 | MINORI | POMPEII | SORRENTO | POSITANO | MINORI After breakfast, depart for a full day filled with captivating sights. Drive to Pompeii, a prosperous Roman town buried under a thick layer of ash 2,000 years ago. A guided walk through the remarkably preserved ruins of temples, houses, gardens and public buildings will be a fascinating and moving experience. Continue to Sorrento for a pizza lunch in a local restaurant before your walking tour of this lovely resort town. On your way back to Minori, stop for a view of Positano, a town of fishermen’s white houses clustered around the glazed tiled dome of its church and overlooking the turquoise Mediterranean water. Dinner at the hotel. (B,L,D)

DAY 5 | MINORI | CAPRI | MINORI This morning, weather permitting, a jetfoil will whisk you across the blue Bay of Naples to the fabled Isle of Capri. Ascend by funicular to the “Piazzetta”, the town center and where extravagance is the non-noticed norm. The magic of the island is everywhere. Walk by spotless narrow streets. Gaze at boutique displays. Sit at an open air cafe for lunch on your own, before returning to the pier by funicular and boarding the jetfoil back to the mainland. Dinner and overnight at the hotel. (B,D)

Salerno

Mozzarella di Bufala

DAY 6 | MINORI | SALERNO | PAESTUM | MINORI Today’s excursion will be to the lively port town of Salerno. During medieval times, the town’s medical school was among the most advanced in Europe. In recent history, Salerno was the site of the Allied landing in September 1942. Continue to Paestum, one of the best collections of Greek architecture in Western Europe, and see the 2000 year old Doric Temples. Next, visit a “Mozzarella di Bufala” factory to learn about the mozzarella making process, and to sample some of this delightful cheese. Return to Minori for a Farewell dinner and overnight at the hotel. (B,D)

Immersed in a five hectares private park, this elegant country residence is the ideal starting point to discover the Veneto region. Richly decorated in both natural and man-made treasures, its varied landscape ranges from the Venetian lagoon near the Adriatic Sea to rolling hills dotted with world renowned vineyards, and stretching up into the magnificent Dolomites mountain range. Featuring breathtaking vistas in the foothills of the Alps, overlooking the surrounding valleys, Treviso has become popular with wine aficionados and travelers who wish to explore Italy's distinctive and only "authentic" Prosecco region firsthand. Once considered "the Garden of Venice", Treviso is a peaceful and idyllic town full of romantic canals, elegant bridges and arcaded streets. Free time for lunch on your own. End the day with a gourmet dinner at the hotel's restaurant. (B,D)

DAY 4 | RIVAROTTA PASIANO PORDENONE | VENICE | RIVAROTTA PASIANO PORDENONE Your visit of the Veneto region wouldn't be complete without a visit to Venice, the city of magnificent marble palaces on a lagoon. Just like its world-famous Carnevale, Venice thrives on mystery and awe, from the secret passageways that riddle Gothic Palazzo Ducale, to the esoteric powers of the Basilica di Santa Maria della Salute, and to Saint Mark's Basilica, recognized as one of the most refined and accomplished works of Byzantine craftsmanship in the world. This afternoon visit a local winery. HIGHLIGHTS

Private full day guided excursion to Matera and Alberobello

The tour begins with a visit of Matera, the city used as a backdrop location for Mel Gibson's movie, "The Passion of the Christ." Walk down ancient streets for an overview of the Caveoso and Barisano districts, both 9,000-year-old neighborhoods of Matera known for their cave dwellings, dug into the rock the city was built on. These habitats date back to the Paleolithic age and are among the first human settlements in Italy. Continue to Alberobello, a fascinating mix of history and architecture in the heart of Puglia. Stroll through the Old Town dominated by conical-roofed trulli adorned with mysterious symbols drawn in lime, before heading back to your hotel.

Private half day guided excursion to Ostuni, including visit of an olive oil farmhouse

The gleaming white city of Ostuni sits atop the last hill of the southern Murgia plateau. Looking out from its fortifications, your eye is drawn over a plain full of ancient olive trees toward the crystal blue waters of the Adriatic Sea. While in Ostuni, you will take a walking tour through narrow streets lined with white-washed buildings, ending at the town's sophisticated Gothic cathedral. End your day with visit of a farmhouse and its original mill, where you will be treated to a tasting of olive oil, olive spread and "friselle", a type of twice-baked bread from Puglia.

Private cooking class followed by lunch, including transfer from hotel

The experience takes place in a beautiful loft-stylish cooking school in Verona's historical center. All equipment and ingredients are provided, so all you have to do is arrive with an appetite and eagerness to learn! Our friendly and experienced Chef will teach you about the simplicity and authenticity of Italian cuisine, cooking and dining. What makes Italian food so good? It's all about using fresh, high-quality ingredients and basic cooking techniques to enhance the natural flavors of the food; you don't need a great effort to create a delicious Italian meal. Make several tasty and healthy dishes including hand-made fresh pasta (tagliatelle) or bruschetta (tomato-topped grilled bread). Top it off with a classic Italian dessert, tiramisu, a sponge cake laced with liqueur and coffee and layered with cocoa and sweet mascarpone cheese. Don't worry, as our friendly and patient Instructor will help you every step of the way. Once everything is finished, sit down at the table and savor your meal with a glass of local Valpolicella wine. At the end of the class you'll be given a booklet with the day's recipes, so you can recreate this Italian meal at home for family and friends.

Private Amarone wine area full day tour with English-speaking driver/escort, including wine tasting and lunch

Meet our enthusiastic driver/escort and leave for the Valpolicella wine region. Relax and enjoy the ride, as you travel to a winery located in the heart of the Valpolicella and Amarone wine area. Here, a personal Sommelier will guide you during your visit of the vineyards and the wine cellar. After a wine tasting session, you will be taken to a local trattoria where a delicious lunch will be served. Learn more about this precious wine during your visit of another estate. The name 'Amarone' comes from the Italian word for bitter, "amaro," which makes sense given the wine's notable bitter and mildly spicy flavors. In the afternoon, relax in your private car as you travel back to Verona and your hotel.
